To the Public.

THE SENTINEL, having double the circulation IN THE CITY, and more than treble OUT OF IT, of any other paper here, renders it far the cheapest and most desirable medium in Milwaukee for all classes of Advertisements.

EVERY BUSINESS MAN who consults his own interest, will avail himself of the columns of THE DAILY SENTINEL—especially when he can do so at the same prices charged by other papers, and secure more than double the advantage of circulation.

This is no boast, but EVERY WORD TRUE.

DANIEL S. DICKINSON FOR BRECKINRIDGE.—In the Binghampton Democrat, the Hon. DANIEL S. DICKINSON declares himself for BRECKINRIDGE and LANE. While he attempts to explain his appearance at the late Syracuse Convention, on the ground of the deep and mighty desire of his soul for Union and Harmony, he now proclaims a deadly war against those who have broken and ruined the party. "The majority of the New York delegation," he says, "held the balance of power in the National Convention, under the unite rule, and could have saved and united the party they have so wantonly and wickedly divided and destroyed. The responsibility is on them, and the shame is theirs. They will be held to an accountability which we believe will not be wholly lost on them, and which will furnish a wholesome lesson to political jobbers and managers generally."

GEN. CASS "AT HOME."—The principal fact in the proceeding of the late Democratic State Convention in Michigan, was the insult offered to Gen. CASS. The "Old Public Functionary," was in the city of Detroit when the Convention was held, and when some one proposed that he should be invited to take a seat in the Convention, the motion was contemptuously laid upon the table. A subsequent effort to cause the Convention to offer a common courtesy to Gen. CASS, was summarily voted down. The reason for this scornful treatment of the venerable statesman of Michigan, is the fact that he is for BRECKINRIDGE and LANE.

STATE LIBRARIAN.—Governor RANDALL has appointed ex Senator S. C. BEAN, State Librarian, in place of HORACE RUBLE, resigned. Mr. BEAN is a zealous and hard working Republican and worthy of the office which the Governor has conferred upon him.

THE FOURTH AT HUSTISFORD.—We are requested to state that the Hon. CHAS. BILLINGHURST will address the people at Hustisford to-day. Mr. JOHN G. DAILY is the Grand Marshal.

VERY TOUCHING!—The BRECKINRIDGE and LANE Committee, of Washington, waited upon the President, who, in reply to their Address, told them to go home and do their duty, "fervently trusting that you may be successful."

Whereupon:—

One of the committee turned and said, with emotion, "Think not, sir, that in going eagerly into the struggle to secure the ascendancy of our candidates, we shall ever cherish the less veneration and devotion for the setting sun."

From Washington.

Special Dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette.

WASHINGTON, June 30, 1860.

THERE WILL BE NO WITHDRAWAL.

All rumors to the effect that Douglas and Breckinridge contemplate withdrawing so as to make way for a candidate on whom the party can unite, are totally without foundation. The fact is, neither of the selected candidates could withdraw if he would.—They have been put in the field and will be kept there by men who have ulterior purposes to serve, and who really care very little what becomes of the nominees so their personal ends are gratified.

Mr. Douglas, I believe, in his heart would very gladly decline, as he sees an inevitable defeat ahead—a defeat which must forever ruin his aspirations; but he is entirely controlled by men who absolutely own him, and will not permit him to take any step which will not accomplish their own selfish ends.

JOINT ELECTORAL TICKETS.

For the same reason I do not think it possible to carry out the favorite idea of joint electoral tickets in the doubtful Northern States. Both wings of the Democracy are active; but the effort will be to secure as many votes as possible against each other, letting the Republicans take care of themselves as they are very well able to do.

LINCOLN'S PROSPECTS IN DELAWARE.

A gentleman from Delaware informs me that it is more than probable that Lincoln will carry that State, owing to the increasing strength of Republicanism there, and the divisions of the Democracy, between the two wings of which the bitterest possible feeling exists. A Republican electoral ticket has been formed, and the campaign will be prosecuted with vigor.

BRECKINRIDGE IN VIRGINIA.

A large majority of the Virginia papers are out for Breckinridge. Among them are Wytheville Telegraph and the Lynchburg Republican, which are the most influential of the Democratic organs of the interior.

B. B. Douglas, one of the Presidential electors, is out in a card expressing the embarrassment he feels in acting with two Democrats in the field, both claiming to be the regular nominee, but at the same time avowing his preference for Breckinridge and Lane.

DROWNED.—A young man named Matthias Henzen, a German, was drowned in the dam across Rock river, above this city, on Sunday. While a number of his comrades were bathing, he was amusing himself by jumping upon the pine logs which lie loosely in the water near the saw mill. In doing so he fell off into the river, which is quite deep, and coming up under the logs, was unable to get out. His body was in the water over an hour before it was recovered. He was about nineteen years of age, had been in this city two or three years, most of the time employed in the store of H. S. Shelton, and was highly esteemed as an intelligent, trustworthy young man. His friends live in Milwaukee, and a twin brother is employed in a match factory in that city. The remains of the deceased have been placed in a vault, subject to the order of his relatives.—Janesville Gazette, July 2d.

Fire in Sing-Sing (N. Y.) Prison.

SING-SING, July 3—3 P. M.

At 4 o'clock this morning, a fire was discovered in the cabinet workshop of Charles H. Woodruff, of the Prison. The engines were brought into requisition, but before the flames were checked the entire building was in ruins.

The boot and shoe shop was with difficulty saved.

The loss of Mr. Woodruff is $60,000. Insured for $40,000 in twenty different companies in New York.

The loss to the State is $4,000. No insurance.

Messrs. Smith sustained a loss by water of $1,000. Insured in the Atlantic, Astor and Commercial Co's., of New York.

This is the third time that Woodruff has been burnt out since 1854.

The weather was calm, or the entire Prison would have been destroyed.

Hail Columbia!

The day we celebrate.

On this bright morning when the SENTINEL goes flying over the rails far inland, it will meet with scenes at every station, and amid groves and in the villages, of jubilant rejoicing, salutes of cannon and ringing of bells wherever men have gathered together in villages, cities or hamlets. Such a matinee as will greet the paper this morning only comes once a year, and then not only does the spirit move in the crowded highways of reeking cities, but the chorus spreads out westward with the morning rays, deep into the forests of the great west, over the broad prairies, and up the widest streams wherever Yankee footsteps have left their impress, the note of song is raised. The flat-boatman fastens the stars and stripes to a rough limb as he glides down the solitary waters. The emigrant fires a salute with his rifle at sunrise, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific, across the broad continent, one sentiment, due to the day, is coursing through the minds of all and finding vent in a demonstration, the like of which old earth never saw before.

When you drink your coffee this morning amid the detonating Patriotism of your juvenile neighbors, take a look at the old scene and story of the "immortal signers." It will do you good to regard the oft-repeated tale again. Let your mind settle back to the gloom of '76—to the handful of heroes standing round that corner stone—the apostles of Liberty preaching a mighty principle in their devotion; the group stands out well in the surrounding gloom. To "proclaim liberty to all the people," seemed then like mockery; the scattered patriots of a yet unopened continent arraying themselves against the world, breasting with calm heroism the great surge of despotism which swept down upon them; hardly daring to doubt their own ultimate extinction. When you have painted the picture, and hung it up in your mind, there is another that must accompany it. You have the picture of the past—let us call it the "Birth of the Day we Celebrate." Now you must sweep the world to paint to-day's Anniversary. It will not do to sketch the assemblages in our great American cities alone. The enthusiasm that is gushing forth from the Lakes to the Gulf will not fill the canvass; your pencil may trace the glow of bonfires and the smoke of fue de jois, ascending from Maine to Puget's Sound, and your canvass is incomplete.—It will be necessary to go to London and Paris—where the stars and stripes are draped over banqueting boards, and American sentiments are going up from warm lips in the midst of loyalty and aristocracy—to the poles, where the whale-man sets the emblem of his country at the mast-head—to the tropics, where the merchantman is making his Fourth of July oration—to the castles on the Rhine, where American tourists linger—to the gates of the Celestial City, in the Chinese Sea, where Yankee-Doodle will be played on American decks, and tarpaulins swung in the red glare of Chinese fire—to the very doors of despotism in all countries under the sun, where hearts are beating to-day with proud happiness—flinging the strange sounds of enfranchised vitality into the midst of dead oligarchies. In every port, on every soil—the principle is bursting into blossoms and fruit. Hang the two pictures up together, they should always be linked on this day, and your children should be taught to look at them thus.

If there is a beating of drums in your town recollect the pulsation extends round the globe, and if you don't feel the better for the thought, you are devoid of the first principles of Yankee Doodle and Hail Columbia.

THE TURNERS.—The Turner Society, Workingmen's Association, and Leiderkranz, will form in procession at 10 o'clock, on Third street, and proceed to Williamsburg, on the Green Bay road, where they will celebrate the day by music and songs. Address in German by E. MARKS, and in English by H. E. PAINE. Fireworks, &c., and a ball in the evening.

VISITORS in Milwaukee to-day will find the best of soda water and syrups at ALLCOT's, opposite the SENTINEL office on East Water street.

THE AMERICAN FLAG.

BY J. R. DRAKE.

When Freedom, from her mountain height,
Unfurled her standard to the air,
She tore the azure robe of night,
And set the stars of glory there.
She mingled with its gorgeous dyes,
The milky baldrick of the skies,
And striped its pure, celestial white,
With streakings of the morning light;
Then, from his mansion in the sun,
She called her eagle-bearer down,
And gave into his mighty hand
The symbol of her chosen land.

Majestic monarch of the cloud!
Who rear'st aloft thy regal form,
To hear the tempest trumping loud,
And see the lightning-lances driven,
When strides the warrior of the storm,
And rolls the thunder drum of heaven;
Child of the sun! to thee 'tis given
To guard the banner of the free,
To hover in the sulphur smoke,
To ward away the battle stroke,
And bid its blendings shine afar,
Like rainbows in the cloud of war,
The harbinger of victory.

Flag of the brave! thy folds shall fly
The sign of hope and triumph high,
When speaks the signal-trumpet tone,
And the long line comes gleaming on,
Ere yet the life-blood, warm and wet,
Has dimmed the glistening bayonet,
Each soldier's eye shall brightly turn
To where thy meteor glories burn,
And as his springing steps advance,
Catch war and vengeance from the glance;
And when the cannon's mouthings loud,
Heave, in wild wreath, the battle shroud,
And gory sabres rise and fall,
Like shoots of flame on midnight's pall,
There, shall thy victor glances glow,
And cowering foes shall sink below
Each gallant arm, that strikes beneath
That awful messenger of death.

Flag of the seas! on ocean's wave
Thy stars shall glitter o'er the brave,
When death, careering on the gale,
Sweeps darkly round the bellied sail,
And frighted waves rush wildly back,
Before the broadside's reeling rack,
The dying wanderer of the sea
Shall look at once to heaven and thee,
And smile, to see thy splendors fly
In triumph o'er his closing eye.

Flag of the free heart's only home!
By angel hands to valor given,
Thy stars have lit the welkin dome,
And all thy hues were born in heaven.
Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us,
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner waving o'er us?

Declaration of Independence.

IN CONGRESS, July 4th, 1776.

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident; —that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that whenever any form of government becomes destructive to these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate, that governments long established should not be changed for light and transcient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former system of government. The history of the present king of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation, till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended he has utterly neglected to attend to them. He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature—a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only. He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the repository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.—He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing, with manly firmness, his invasions on the rights of the people.—He has refused, for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large, for their exercise; the State remaining, in the mean time, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within. He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migration hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands. He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers. He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices and the amount and payment of their salaries. He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers, to harass our people, and eat out their substance. He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies without the consent of our legislatures. He has affected to render the military independent of, and superior to, the civil power. He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us: for protecting them by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States: for cutting off our trade with all parts of the world: for imposing taxes on us without our consent, for depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury: for transporting us beyond seas, to be tried for pretended offences: for abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies: for taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering, fundamentally, the forms of our governments: for suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us. He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people. He is at this time transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the work of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation. He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands. He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions, we have petition for redress in the most humble terms: our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our migration and settlement here. We have have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They, too, have been deaf to the voice of justice and consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind—enemies in war, in peace friends.

WE, therefore, the representatives of the United States of America, in general congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name and by the authority of the good people of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, that these united Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the state of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that, as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

Funeral Obsequies over Stephen A. Douglas.

Last night was the evening before the Fourth and so the Democrats availed themselves of the enthusiasm and noise to ratify DOUGLAS. A platform was erected in Market Square, a bonfire was ignited; bands paraded the streets and fireworks were touched off, and by dint of pyrotechnical fizzling and martial hullabaloos the people were constrained to the amount of several hundred.

Mr. E. G. RYAN opened the show by a few hot remarks laudatory of the Little Giant, but as the blazing bonfire threatened to melt him before he could perform that operation on his auditory, he complained of a throat disease, and begged to introduce Mr. GEO. B. SMITH who "TALKED LIKE A WAR-HORSE."

Mr. SMITH, after this flattering introduction, put himself on his mettle to merit the encomium. But it was plain to be seen that he had the heaves. For a war-horse he pranced about well, but the music and rockets made him skittish. After listening for a half hour to his praise of the "Little Giant," we came to the conclusion that he was a better draught horse than anything else, though we thought if it ever fell to him to draw a crowd he would break down in the effort. Having heard as much as we could stand of the LITTLE Giant, we repaired to the side show, a few rods up the street, and to equalize the matter, listened for a few minutes to another eloquent speaker dilating on the "BIG Giant."

This Democratic Ratification lacked the spirit and—(we will not say fire, for the speakers and audience were half roasted with the bonfire) enthusiasm of former gatherings. It was evident that the split in the party had dampened the ardor and destroyed the hopes of the once unterrified.

After we left, "our LARRABEE" resumed the "Little Giant" thread—and we presume if the crowd did not melt under the combined influence of the bonfire and the eloquence—they will be found in Market Square this morning, trying to persuade themselves that DOUGLAS knows no North and no South and that such dreadful possibilities as Honest ABE and BRECKINRIDGE have disappeared in the mists of yesterday.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT IN THE 6TH WARD.—On Monday evening a number of Germans were engaged in firing a couple of anvils before ALTPETER's Saloon in the 6th Ward—when one of the pieces of iron exploded, striking a Mrs. NIES just below the knee, and producing a wound which rendered amputation necessary.

Mrs. NIES is the wife of a German laborer. The accident was attributed entirely to the carelessness of those who had the management of the anvil.

Dr. KISSLIG yesterday morning removed the limb, but we understand there is very little hope of her recovery.

GRAND MOONLIGHT EXCURSION ON THE LAKE.—The steamer Huron, Capt. PABST, will leave the dock of Mr. R. OLMSTED, on the river, this evening, at 8 o'clock, for a moonlight excursion on the Lake. She will return by 11 P. M. Tickets only fifty cents.

It will be a fine opportunity to enjoy the refreshing Lake breeze and the bright moonlight; as well as to see the display of fireworks in the city and from the steamship Milwaukee, which will be due at 10 o'clock P. M.

REPUBLICANS, ATTENTION!—There will be a meeting of the Central Republican Club of this city, at head quarters, in Albany building, on next Thursday evening, July 5, at 9 1-2 o'clock. Republicans turn out, as business of importance will be transacted. Speakers will be in attendance. By order of the President. MASON G. SMITH, Secretary.

Immediately after the adjournment of the above meeting, the Wide-Awake Club will convene for transacting business.

OMNIBUSSES TO THE BASE BALL MATCH.—Mr. DAVIS will have two or three omnibusses to-day, running from the corner of Main and Wisconsin streets to the Fair Ground, Spring Street hill, where the Base Ball match is to be played. The game will commence shortly after 10 o'clock A. M., and last till 1, or 2 P. M.

PERSONAL.—Governor RANDALL was in our city, yesterday, on his way to Sparta, where he is to deliver a Fourth of July address to-day. The Governor reports the crops as looking splendidly, all over the State, and says that the Republicans, everywhere, are at work in earnest and intend to give "Honest ABE LINCOLN," of Illinois a rousing majority in Wisconsin.

THE ANTONIO CIRCUS entered town yesterday and cast its tent in the Fourth Ward. A large concourse of people attended the performance in the afternoon, which was of an extra description. Three performances will be given to-day as will be seen by the programme.

THE BOYS are in the habit of stealing berries from the stands of the several stores in town. We notice that one storekeeper hides himself behind an empty box, and pouncing upon the young robbers, carries them in triumph to the cellar, where their feelings are operated upon by a switch.

A SMOKING HOT DAY.—Yesterday was the hottest we have had this year. The thermometer, in various localities about the city, marked ninety. The air was sultry; relieved, occasionally, by a slight westerly breeze. The clouds at night-fall portended a thunder storm.

EQUAL TO EITHER FORTUNE.—The Waukesha Democrat of yesterday comes to us with both BRECKINRIDGE and DOUGLAS at its mast-head. The Editor declines taking part with either, and advises his Democratic readers to "watch and wait."

DURING THIS AFTERNOON the several German military companies will repair to MELMS' Menomonee Garden in the Fifth Ward, where a large rostrum has been erected for music and speakers. This is a capital place to enjoy a warm day, and a great many citizens will no doubt avail themselves of the opportunity and resort thither.

ACCIDENT.—CHARLES C. MENTZ was thrown from a buggy on Prospect street yesterday, breaking his leg and otherwise injuring himself. He resides at Eagle, Waukesha Co.

Post Office Notice.

P. O., MILWAUKEE, July 4, 1860.

The Post Office will be open to day, (this 4th,) from 8 to 9:30 A. M., and from 5 to 6 P. M. M. STEEVER, P. M.

MATCH AT BASE BALL.—In honor of the day, our Milwaukee Base Ball Club will play a grand match on their grounds, Spring Street Hill, this morning. Play will commence at a quarter past 10 o'clock. An omnibus will leave the corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, at 10 o'clock, to convey parties to the ground.

PUBLIC DRINKING FOUNTAIN.—The thirsty public may now obtain pure filtered ice water, without money and without price, by turning the faucet of a drinking fountain provided at the doorway of Mr. RICHARDSON'S store on Wisconsin Street, just east of Milwaukee.

Improvements in Milwaukee.

Within the past month we have been in nine of the largest cities in the Union, but in none have we seen as much improvement going on in proportion to the size of the place as in Milwaukee. Chicago has not half the evidences of solid wealth, nor as many solid, substantial buildings in course of construction as Milwaukee, nor is her business or population increasing as fast. In Milwaukee, although the times are hard, the march of improvement is rapid. New stores, new blocks of business houses costing thousands of dollars—new and elegant dwellings—new churches—new streets and newly grading of old ones—new lines of horse railroads, and new first class business houses from the east, are to be seen; no matter in which part of the city you travel.

Baltimore and Milwaukee are the two handsomest, most substantial, cleanest, business looking, healthy cities we have seen this season, except New York, Boston and Philadelphia, and they are only superior on account of their size. Every citizen of Wisconsin feels justly proud of "the City of Bricks." We feel proud of her on account of her superior business location—her healthy situation—her model schools—her low taxes—her large and numerous wholesale houses—her A. No. 1 liberal, energetic, enterprising, honorable and wealthy business men—her railroad and water facilities, and her healthy growth.

We feel proud of her as the great commercial centre of the State, able and ready to compete with Chicago or St. Louis in trade, and able to sell goods to country dealers or others at lower figures than any other western city can offer. We feel proud of Milwaukee for the reason that her grain market is known all over the world—because her exports of wheat will exceed the exports from Chicago from and after this year—because Milwaukee Wheat brings a higher price in eastern markets than any other Wheat—because her merchants are able to pay cash for what they buy, and thereby take every advantage of the market when purchasing goods to supply their increasing country trade. We are proud of Milwaukee because she is not overrun with a lazy police force as is Chicago—because her morals are better, her criminals fewer, her credit better; and her taxes lighter in proportion to her valuation than Chicago, the windy city of the West.

And what is better, people up this way are beginning to find it out—are using the influence for Milwaukee, after trying for themselves half a dozen different markets, satisfied that the best one of all in the West, to buy or sell, is on the shore of Lake Michigan, at the eastern terminus of the La Crosse & Milwaukee Railroad.—La Crosse Union & Democrat.

The Daily Milwaukee Enquirer.

This is the name of the new Breckinridge paper to be issued in this city about the 10th inst. It will be under the Editorial control of Messrs. A. G. ELLIS & A. P. SWINEFORD, who possess the ability to make live, reliable Democratic paper, and we have no doubt the paper will be most liberally patronized. The publishers in their prospectus just issued, say: "It is not our purpose to give in this circular of announcement an extended exposition of our principles or the course we intend to pursue politically, further than that which may readily be gathered from the motto inscribed at the head of this paper.—We can say, however, that the Enquirer will be purely and nationally Democratic in name if possible, but in principal always.

It is our desire to make the Enquirer not only the best, but the cheapest newspaper in the State. Aside from politics, it will not be found lacking in that variety of general, telegraphic, local, financial and commercial news, usually found in the live newspapers of the day.

In order to secure an extensive circulation, as well as prompt payment, by putting the price of our paper within the reach of all, we offer the following low terms to subscribers:—DAILY—One copy per annum, $4,00; 10 copies (one address) $8,00; 20 copies (one address) $15,00. Address all letters to ELLIS & SWINEFORD, Milwaukee, Wis.

Presidential Election!

THE GREAT CAMPAIGN OF 1860 OPEN!!

Let Every Republican Prepare for the Conflict!!

Circulate Truth among the People!!

THE WEEKLY SENTINEL

Six Months for Less than Cost of Paper and Printing!!!

READ AND BE CONVINCED

The present campaign is to be a memorable one. The battle will be fought zealously between the friends and the enemies of Freedom, and the ground contested inch by inch. In view of these facts, it is apparent that the dissemination of Republican papers and documents becomes of vast and vital importance. In order to furnish the WEEKLY SENTINEL to the people of the North-West, during the Campaign of 1860, we have concluded to offer the paper, FROM THE 1ST OF JUNE TO THE 1ST OF DECEMBER, at the following unprecedented liberal terms:

One Copy for	$0 50
Twenty Copies, (to one address)	$9 00
Fifty " " "	$20 00
One Hundred do " "	$35 00

These terms will barely cover the cost of paper before it is printed; but we have determined to put the price so low that every individual Republican, or organized Club, in this or adjoining States, will use their best endeavors to scatter the SENTINEL broadcast in their particular localities, and thus accomplish more than by the circulation of ten times as many documents in any other form. Every Campaign subscriber will receive the full returns of the election in November.

We need not urge upon our Republican friends the importance of placing this sheet in the hands of all. Let NO VOTER, or family in the State, be without the SENTINEL during the Campaign. Wheresoever facts are read and the people have access to truth, Republicanism prevails.

Send in your orders as early as possible.

The Farm Mortgage Decision.

We are in receipt of several communications from subscribers and friends in different parts of the State, commenting upon the recent decision of our Supreme Court, affirming the validity of the Farm Mortgages given in aid of Railroads, and suggesting various measures for the relief of those who are threatened with heavy loss by reason of this decision. We give place to one of the communications this morning, as it emanates from a prominent and influential citizen of Dodge County, and renews a proposition for the relief of the Farm Mortgagors, which was first made by him last winter in the Assembly. There is great sympathy felt for those of our Farmers who, tempted by the hope of large gains, or deceived by the misrepresentations of Rail Road Agents, mortgaged their Farms to help build the roads which traverse our State; and are now threatened with the loss of their broad acres and pleasant Wisconsin homes. And while public sentiment sustains the decision itself as just, any practical and equitable measure of relief for those who are likely to be the sufferers by it, will doubtless command the popular approval.

Where Gov. Johnson Stands.

HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON was so little known to the people and press of the country outside of Georgia, previous to his nomination at Baltimore, that little else could be affirmed of him than that he called himself a Democrat and advocated a Territorial Slave Code. Since his nomination, however, some curiosity has been excited as to his political affinities and antecedents. It appears that at the Democratic State Convention which met at Milledgeville, Georgia, on the 4th of last month, to consider the action of the Charleston Convention, there was a great strife between the friends and the opponents of the Seceders and an effort made to send a new delegation to Baltimore. Gov. JOHNSON headed the faction who opposed the Secession at Charleston and desired to send another set of delegates to Baltimore. He presented, from the business committee, the following report:

MINORITY REPORT.

Resolved, That we re-affirm the Cincinnati platform with the following additional propositions:

1st. That the citizens of the United States have an equal right to settle with their property of any kind, in the organized Territories of the United States, and that under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Dred Scott, which we recognize as the correct exposition of the Constitution in this particular, slave property stands on the same footing as all other description of property, and that neither the General Government, NOR ANY TERRITORIAL GOVERNMENT, can destroy or impair the right to slave property in the common territories, any more than the right to any other description of property; that property of all kinds, slaves as well as any other species of property, in the territories, stand upon the same equal and broad Constitutional basis, subject to like principles of recognition and protection in the LEGISLATIVE, judicial, and executive departments of the Government.

2d. That we will support any man who may be nominated by the Baltimore Convention, for the Presidency, who holds the principles set forth in the foregoing proposition, and who will give them his endorsement, and that we will not hold ourselves bound to support any man, who may be the nominee, who entertains principles inconsistent with those set forth in the above propositions, or who denies that slave property in the territories does stand on an equal footing, and on the same Constitutional basis of other descriptions of property.

In view of the fact that a large majority of the delegates from Georgia felt it to be their duty to withdraw from the late Democratic Convention, thereby depriving this State of her vote therein, according to the decision of the Convention,

Resolved, That this Convention will appoint twenty delegates—four from the State at large, and two from each Congressional District—to represent the Democratic party of Georgia, at the adjourned Convention at Baltimore, on the 18th inst., and that said delegates be and they are hereby instructed to present the foregoing propositions, and ask their adoption by the National Democratic Convention.

HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON,
THOS. P. SAFFOLD,
H. COLVARD.

This report, after debate, was rejected and the majority reported adopted, 299 to 41, whereupon, the minority, under the lead of Gov. JOHNSON, seceded, and appointed the bogus Delegates who were admitted by the DOUGLAS majority into the Baltimore Convention upon an equal footing with the regularly appointed Delegation.

This, however, is not material. But the sentiments embodied in Gov. JOHNSON's reports are worthy of special note. They point emphatically to a Territorial Slave Code, and deny explicitly that doctrine of "Squatter Sovereignty," upon which Mr. DOUGLAS builds his hopes of the Presidency. Can this "two-faced" Democracy succeed with the People?

The Presidential Candidates.

As a matter of interest to our readers of all political persuasions we give below the name, age and place of residence of each of the four prominent candidates for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency of the United States:

NOMINEES FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

Politics.	Names.	Residence.	Age.

HUNGARY.—At a banquet given at Palermo on the occasion of the armistice, GARIBALDI (according to the Courier de Paris) proposed as a toast "The Independence of Hungary," and, turning to his adjutant general, Colonel Turr, said—"Friend, you were my guest at Como and Varese, and you are now my guest here; but in January next I will return you visit—at Pesth!"

The Farm Mortgage Decision—What is to be Done?

To the Editor of the Milwaukee Sentinel—

SIR:—The recent decision of the Supreme Court in the "Farm Mortgage" Case, having been published, is creating very considerable uneasiness among a large portion of citizens in this part of the State. Not only those interested as Mortgagors, but many others are also seriously inquiring, what can be done? or what ought to be done? if possible, to protect those who may be ruined, if compelled to pay the mortgages; or, on the other hand, to return to the holders of those mortgages the money which they have paid for them.

This is, indeed, an unfortunate position of things! involving the loss of a very large amount on either side, and in many, very many cases, absolute ruin! Can anything be done to prevent or relieve such a calamity? And if there can, what shall it be? I think it can, and should be done!!

When the bill "for granting to the Madison, Portage City and Lake Superior Rail Road Company certain lands to aid in the construction of a Rail Road, and to repeal and annul a Grant of Land heretofore made to the La Crosse and Milwaukee Rail Road Company"—was under consideration in the Assembly of this State, at its last session, I moved as an amendment the following additional section, to wit:

"Sec. 13. All the grant, rights, privileges and franchises by this act made to, or conferred upon the said Madison, Portage City and Lake Superior Railroad Company, are hereby declared to be, and are made to, and conferred upon said Company upon the express condition, that the said Madison, Portage City and Lake Superior Railroad Company, shall assume and pay the amount due upon any, and all farm mortgages received or taken by the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company, from any person or persons whatever in payment for, or on account of stock in said Company; and before this act shall become operative, and before any grant by this act made to the said Company shall take effect; the said Company shall, within twenty days after the passage of this act, make and execute in due form of law, and file in the office of the Secretary of State, an instrument in writing sufficient in law to accomplish the object sought to be attained by this section, whereby the said Company shall, in consideration of the grant made to it, and the rights, privileges and franchises conferred upon it, make itself liable for, and shall assume to pay and discharge all the farm mortgages which have been taken by the said La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company aforesaid, in payment, part payment, or on account of the stock of said Company subscribed for, or issued to, or for, or by the direction of any person giving such mortgage; and the making and filing of such instrument is hereby declared to be a condition precedent to any grant, right, privilege or franchise by this act made to, or conferred upon the said Company; and if the said Company shall neglect, fail, or refuse to make and execute, and file such instrument in writing in the office of the Secretary of State for the space of twenty days after the passage of this act, all grants, rights, privileges and franchises, by this act made to, or conferred upon the said Company, shall be null and void, and shall be of no effect."

It will be born in mind that the bill to which the above amendment was offered, provided among other things, "to repeal and amend a Grant of Land heretofore made to the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company." The above amendment was adopted by the Assembly, but the bill was defeated, consequently leaving the Land granted to the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company undisturbed by any new Legislation.

The La Crosse and Milwaukee R. R. Company has not received those lands, and it is not likely that it will receive them very soon if ever. At the time the Grant was made to, that Company, it was in a sound and healthy condition, financially; had over sixty miles of road completed, in running order, well supplied and furnished with rolling stock, and was doing a flourishing and prosperous business; its credit and securities were in good standing in the market, and all interested in its success were confident and jubilant! Since that time the tables have become turned; its credit has perished, its value, as a stock Company, has vanished, and its affairs have become irretrievably ruined! Why have such consequences resulted? And why have prostration of credit, and financial ruin followed immediately to that Company, upon the Grant to it of public lands to a very large amount, and of great value?

The history of the operations of that company at the time the grant was made to it, and for a few months immediately thereafter, has been written; and it is not my purpose to repeat it here. Sufficient for my purpose in this communication, is the fact, that from the day the grant was made to that Company, the then stockholders in it, were ruined to the extent of their stock, and the farm mortgagors became liable to be called upon by the holders of their mortgages, for payment, which is now being attempted through the courts.

In this peculiarly unfortunate, and I may say, almost, if not quite hopeless condition of a very great number of worthy, laborious and valuable citizens, would it be unreasonable, unjust, or inexpedient, to appropriate so much of the lands in question, as migh be required to satisfy and cause to be cancelled, all those farm mortgages taken and now outstanding, by that company? I know this proposition, is open to the objection, "that those lands have not been donated to the State; but have been granted to the State, only for the specific purpose of aiding in the construction of certain Rail Roads &c." Now Sir, grant this to be true, which I most readily will, yet does it not follow; that those, who have been most fatally injured by the effect of the grant to that Company, (whether designedly or otherwise,) have at least, a very strong equitable claim upon the lands, or upon the Legislature for protection? and cannot this be done, consistent with good faith to all interests concerned. And would it not vastly contribute to the advancement of the prosperity of a large number of the citizens of this State, as well as satisfy and discharge a great amount of indebtedness both at home and abroad? and which, in its effects cannot fail to add immensely, in the aggregate to our character for honesty as a people, and justice as a State? I think it can.

I propose now to state as briefly as I am able, in what manner the above suggestions may be carried out. Let the Legislature at its next session, respectfully ask Congress so to modify the terms and conditions of the grant, as to authorize the Legislature to make the appropriation of enough of those lands to accomplish the object named.—Should be done by the Legislature, I feel confident that such a modification of the original grant would be readily granted by Congress.

I have made this communication longer than I intended; but for which I might add sundry other considerations in favor of the leading idea herein advanced, but I will defer for the present, sincerely hoping that the subject may be taken up by some abler pen than mine, and that public attention and discussion will lead to a correct and proper conclusion.

Very resp'y your ob't serv't,
STODDARD JUDD.

CONNECTICUT.—Says the Hartford Times, the leading Democratic organ in Connecticut: "The whole Democratic press of Connecticut is united in condemning the action at Baltimore by which the rightful Southern delegates were excluded to make room for those who were without authority to act as the representatives of their States, and who had no constituency to back them up in their claims." This is one of the Northern States which DOUGLAS expected to carry.

REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING AT RICHMOND CENTRE.—The Republicans of Walworth meet in Mass Convention, at Richmond Centre on Tuesday next, the 10th instant. The meeting will be addressed by Lieut. Governor NOBLE the Hon. JOHN F. POTTER and other good speakers.

Compliments and Kicks.

Much amusement is to be derived from a comparison of the remarks made by the Douglas journals upon the character of Senator Fitzpatrick immediately following his nomination at Baltimore, with those bestowed on him since he has declined the honor of seconding Mr. Douglas on the ticket of the Rump Convention. The compliments and the kicks contrast very funnily. Here is one instance, brought to notice by the Rochester Democrat:

From the Rochester Union, June 25, 1860.

The nomination for Vice President is one most eminently fit to be made. Benjamin Fitzpatrick is one of the ablest statesmen in the South, and by a service of ten or twelve years in the United States Senate has attained a national reputation and standing. His peculiar fitness for the duties of Vice President, and his personal popularity among his colleagues are shown by the fact that since his entrance into the Senate, he has been invariably chosen President pro tem of every session of Congress.

From the Rochester Union, June 27, 1860.

The declension of Fitzpatrick, and the substitution of Herschel V. Johnson, of Georgia, for Vice, produce a most salutary change in the Democratic ticket. Fitzpatrick voted for the Jeff. Davis resolutions; and he should never have been placed on the same ticket with Stephen A Douglas. But the Alabama delegation wanted him; and they were gratified at the expense of consistency and propriety.—His declension makes every thing right again.

The New Comet--Letter from Prof. Watson.

To the Editor of the Daily Advertiser:

DETROIT OBSERVATORY, ANN ARBOR,
June 29th, 1860.

On the evening of the 21st inst., a bright comet was detected by Mr. Tuttle, at Cambridge, Mass., which has increased rapidly in brilliancy, and now presents a beautiful appearance to the naked eye.

It has been observed on three different evenings, and the observations show that it has passed its perihelion, or point of its orbit nearest the sun, on the 16th inst., at a distance from the sun of twenty nine millions of miles. It is now receding from the sun and approaching the earth. It will be nearest the earth on the 12th of July, and will then be distant from us forty-two millions of miles.

The comet will be brightest on the 5th of July, and since the moonlight will not interfere at that date, it will present a magnificent appearance. It is now moving rapidly towards the south and east, but will continue visible until the beginning of August.

This is not the famous comet of 1556, which has been announced to re appear this year, and which caused the abdication of Charles V., Emperor of Germany, at its last visit, but is undoubtedly a stranger to our system. JAMES C. WATSON.

Picture of an "Ox-Eyed Juno."

Mr. H. B. Stowe, in her last letter from Italy, has the following quaint and queer comparison:

Mighty cream colored oxen, with their grand branching horns, and great dreamy eyes, with lashes long and silky, were lying about in the fresh grass or standing pensively musing. One looks into their deep, dark eyes as into some mysterious fountain like that of Egeria, shaded with ferns and rushes—and one sees then why the household divinity, the mother of gods and men who presided over the cradle of infancy, should have been conceived by old Homer as ox-eyed.—The epithet brings to us the true ox-woman fair and broad chested, calm and full of domesticity and homely providences, a clover fed woman whose breath smells of sweet meadow hay—who chewed cuds of good household thought, silently filling herself up with kindly intents—in whose motherly lap and broad bosom might be counsel and sound wisdom, and an unchanging daylight of calm content;—a woman made for wear, with no fancies, no nervous starts, no megrims or hysterics—but in whose ample sweetness megrims, hysterics, stridulous nerves, and infirmities of weaker conditioned natures, might find a dewy repose, such as one gets lying on a hay-rick hearing birds sing in a mellow June day afternoon. This is the ox-eyed Juno that one sees in Villa Ludovici, with her sublime brow, her great calm eyes, her full, sweet, noble lips, her amplitude of outline—most needful and fit mountain of womanly kindness, truth, firmness, calmness, sympathy and healthfulness—like these magnificent cream-colored creatures of the Campagna. We much fear that the domestic anecdotes of Juno, as given by her poet, suit as ill with this idea as poetry generally does with reality, and that Jupiter might shrug his shoulders expressively at the contrast. So often is a good animal superior in its morale to the humane type most resembling it. The introduction of wider intelligence seems to play the mischief with creation generally.

DISCOVERY OF LARGE HUMAN SKELETONS.—BUCK, of Driesbach City, six miles north of La Crosse, sends the following account of the discovery of large human skeletons to the Winona Republican:

"A. L. Jenks, of this place, in prospecting in one of those mounds that are so common in this western country, discovered at the depth of five or six feet, the remains of seven or eight people of very large size. One thigh bone measured three feet in length.—The under jaw was one inch wider than that of any other man in this city. He also found clam shells, pieces of ivory or bone, rings, pieces of kettles made of earth and coarse sand. There were at the neck of one of these skeletons teeth two inches in length by one-half to three-fourths of an inch in diameter, with holes drilled into the sides, and the end polished, with a crease around it. Also an arrow, five inches long, by one and a half wide, stuck through the back, near the back bone; and one about eight inches long, stuck into the left breast. Also the blade of a copper hatchet, 1 1-2 inch wide at the edge and two inches long. This hatchet was found stuck in the skull of the same skeleton. The mound is some two hundred feet above the surface of the Mississippi, and is composed of clay, immediately above the remains, two feet thick; then comes a layer of black loam; then another layer of clay, six inches thick, all so closely packed that it was with difficulty that it could be penetrated. There are some four or five different layers of earth above the remains There is no such clay found elsewhere in this vicinity.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM A TERRIBLE RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Yesterday morning the 9 o'clock Newton Express train, consisting of five or six cars loaded with passengers, narrowly escaped being precipitated into the Passaic river, by running of the Newark bridge. The draw was opened to allow the passage of a vessel, and the proper signal shown; but the engineer, who has recently been placed on the road, failed to discover it The conductor of the train saw the signal and pulled the engineer's bell to stop. The order was promptly obeyed, but not an instant too soon, for the locomotive was within six feet of the draw, and in a moment more the whole train, with its load of human freight, would have been precipitated into the river. It was a miraculous escape, and the circumstances attending it will undergo the most rigid examination.—The World (N. Y.) June 30th.

THE GREAT EASTERN AT NEW YORK.—The Courier & Enquirer of Saturday says upwards of twenty-five thousand persons visited the ship yesterday. She will not be open for inspection until Tuesday, and in the meantime, not even members of the Press will be allowed on board. Painters are engaged in painting the vessel up, and when the work is finished the vessel will be thrown open to the public, 50 cents per head being the price fixed for admission.

All around, numerous grog-shops are springing up, and the number promises to be very great. One man pays $500 a week for the privilege of locating a lager beer saloon near the ship, and others pay from $50 a week upwards for the same privilege.

DISASTERS ON THE WESTERN RIVERS.—According to the Louisville Courier's statistics, the list of disasters on the western rivers since the incoming of the present year, has already assumed terrible proportions.—During the time, only six months, upwards of one hundred lives have been lost, one and a half millions of dollars lost, three serious explosions have occurred, forty four boats have been snagged, seventeen burnt, five lost and injured by collisions, twenty steamboats lost or crippled in storms, and one hundred and nineteen barges, coal boats, and other flat boats lost by storms. The number of serious accidents sums up to two hundred and twenty-one.

THE ALBANY RATIFICATION MEETING.—Speaking of the LINCOLN ratification meeting in that city on the evening of Wednesday last, the Albany Evening Journal says it was "the largest, most enthusiastic, and, in every way, the most gratifying and successful meeting which has signaled the opening of any Presidential campaign within our memory."

VIRGINIA.—The Lynchburgh Republican, heretofore a strong DOUGLAS paper, has declared for BRECKINRIDGE and LANE. Mr. GLASS, the editor, was a delegate to the Baltimore Convention. He withdrew from the orignal body, but took no part in the proceedings of the one which nomiated BRECKINRIDGE.

GRAND CHANCE TO SECURE A HOME upon such terms that any one who has any industry can do it. Mr. Glidden, who owns one-half of Lockwood & Glidden's Addition, has made me his agent, to sell his lots in said Addition, at unusually low prices, to any one who will improve them, and upon such terms that any one can meet the payments. It is unnecessary to go into argument to convince one who has any judgment that this property, which is situated in the First Ward, must, and will be the most desirable residence property in the city of Milwaukee. It is in full view of the Lake and on high ground, which overlooks the city, and a more healthy situation cannot be found. Its location for business men is very desirable, the Horse Railroad passing through it every fifteen or twenty minutes. Much more could be said about this valuable property, but we will only say, any persons who have any desire to purchase any of said Lots, if they will call at my office they can see a map, and I will go with them and show them the Lots, and they can judge for themselves. The terms on which said Lots will be sold are as follows: Ten per cent. in twelve months; 15 per cent. in two years; and 25 per cent. every year thereafter until the amount is paid, with interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, interest not to commence until six months after the date of purchase. Here is a chance never before offered, and there is every reason to believe that this property will advance 100 per cent. in less than twelve months. The great advantage of the Horse Railroad must, and will make it very desirable. The Lots are free from all encumbrances whatever. Certificate of title will be furnished to any one who may purchase. WE OWN THE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT for the sale of MITCHELL'S PATENT METALLIC TIPPED BOOTS AND SHOES, for and within the States of Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota, and hereby give notice that all parties dealing in these goods within the above States, without having first arranged with us and by our consent, are, and will be direct infringers upon our EXCLUSIVE rights, and that as soon as we are advised of any infringement, shall demand proper and immediate redress.

We have made extensive arrangements with the most celebrated manufacturers, whereby we can fully supply the increasing demand with the best qualities of these Tipped Boots and Shoes from our store in Chicago, each pair of which will be stamped and labeled with our name.

We shall recognize no Tipped goods within either the above States, but such are thus stamped and supplied by us.

As these glasses permit every ray of light to pass completely through them they will not only enable the party using them to do the finest eye work without injury, but will preserve and even strengthen the sight, which very often, by other glasses is ruined.

My SPECTACLES are celebrated for the superior and high optic nature of the glasses, as well as NEATNESS and ELEGANCE of finish, for which they received at the World's Fairs, both Paris and London, the first premiums, (viz: Gold Medals), being the best specimens on exhibition. Many years experience and a thorough knowledge of optics, enable me to select such glasses, for those requiring their use, as will ensure entire satisfaction.

Diseases of the Chest and Lungs;

THESE DISEASES ARE TOO WELL known to require any description. How many thousands are every year carried to the silent grave by that dreadful scourge Consumption, which always commences with a slight cough. Keep the blood pure and healthy by taking a few doses of JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS each week and disease of any kind is impossible. Consumption and lung difficulties always arise from particles of corrupt matter deposited in the air-cells by bad blood. Purify that stream of life and it will very soon carry off and destroy the poisonous matter; and like a crystal river flowing through a desert, will bring with it and leave throughout the body the elements of health and strength. As the river leaving the elements of fertility in its course, causes the before barren waste to bloom with flowers and fruit, so pure blood causes the frame to rejoice in strength and health, and bloom with unfading beauty.

Judson's Mountain Herb Pills are sold by all medicine dealers.

IN OUR BOAT.

Stars trembled o'er us and sunset before us,
Mountains in shadow and forest asleep;
Down the dim river we float on forever,
Speak not, ah, breathe not, there's peace on the deep.

Come not, pale Sorrow, flee till to-morrow,
Rest softly falling o'er eyelids that weep:
While down the river we float on forever,
Speak not, ah, breathe not, there's peace on the deep.

Heaven shine above us, bless all that love us,
All whom we love in thy tenderness keep!
While down the river we float on forever,
Speak not, ah, breathe not, there's peace on the deep.

THE PHANTOM HAND.

I see a hand you cannot see,
Which beckons me away.

In a lonely part of the bleak and rocky coast of Scotland, there dwelt a being who was designated by the few that knew and feared him, the Warlock Fisher. He was in truth, a singular and fearful old man. For years he had followed his dangerous occupation alone; adventuring forth in weather which appalled the stoutest of the stout hearts that occasionly exchanged a word with him in passing to and fro in their mutual employment. Of his name, birth or descent, nothing was known; but the fecundity of conjecture had supplied an unfailing stock of materials on these points. Some said he was the devil incarnate; others said he was a Dutchman, or some other 'far away foreigner,' who had fled to these comparative solitudes for a shelter from the retribution due to some grevious crime; and all agreed that he was neither a Scot nor a true man.—In outward form, however, he was still 'a model of a man,' tall and well made, though in years, his natural strength was far from being abated. His matted black hair, hanging in elf-locks about his ears and shoulders, together with the perpetual sulliness which seemed native in the expression of his features, neither regular nor pleasing, gave him an appearance unendurably disgusting. He lived alone, in a hovel of his own construction, partially scooped out of the rock—was never known to have suffered a visitor within his walls, to have spoken a kind word, or done a kind action.

Once, indeed, he performed an act, which in a less ominous being, would have been lauded as the extreme of heroism. In a dreadful stormy morning, a fishing boat was seen in great distress, making for the shore—there was a father and two sons in it. The danger became eminent, as they neared the rocky promotory of the fisher—and the boat upset. Women and boys were screaming and gesticulting from the beach, in all the wild and useless energy of despair, but assistance was nowhere to be seen. The father and one of the lads disappeared forever; but the younger boy clung with extraordinary resolution to the inverted vessel. By accident, the Warlock Fisher came to the door of his hovel, saw the drowning lad, and plunged instantaneously into the sea. For some minutes he was invisable amid the angry turmoil, but he swam like an inhabitant of the fearful element, and bore the boy to the beach. From fatigue or fear, or the effects of both united, the poor lad died shortly afterwards, and his grateful relatives industriously insisted, that he had been blighted in the grasp of his unhallowed rescuer!

Towards the end of the autumn, the weather frequently becomes so broken and stormy in these parts, as to render the sustenance derived from fishing extremely precarious.—Against this, however, the Warlock Fisher was provided, for, caring little for weather, and apparently less for life, he went out in all seasons, and was known to be absent for days, during the most violent storms, when every hope of seeing him again was lost.—Still nothing harmed him: he came drifting back again the same wayward, unfearing, unhallowed animal. To account for this, it was understood that he was in connexion with smugglers; that his days of absence were spent in their service—in reconnoitering for their safety, and assisting their prelations. Whatever of truth there might be in it, it was well known that the Warlock Fisher never wanted for ardent spirits; and so free was he in their use, and of tobacco, that he has been heard, in a long and dreary winter's night, caroling songs in a strange tongue, with all the fervor of an inspired bacchanal. It has been said, too, at such times he held a strange talk with some who never answered, deprecated sights which no one else could see, and exhibited the fury of an outrageous maniac.

It was towards the close of an autumn day, that a tall young man was seen surveying the barren rocks, and apparently deserted shores, near the dwelling of the Fisher.—He wore the inquiring aspect of a stranger, and yet his step indicated a previous acquaintance with the scene. The sun was flinging his boldest radiance on the rolling ocean; as the youth ascended the rugged path which led to the Warlock Fisher's hut. He surveyed the door for a moment, as if to be certain of the spot; and then, with one stroke of the foot, dashed the door inwards. It was damp and tenantless. The stranger set down his bundle, kindled a fire, and remained in quiet possession. In a few hours the Fisher returned. He started involuntarily at the sight of the intruder, who sprang to his feet, ready for any emergency.

"What seek you in my hut?" said the Fisher.

"A shelter for the night—the hawks are out."

"Who directed you to me?"

"Old acquaintance!"

"Never saw you with my eyes—shiver me! But never mind, you look like the breed—a ready hand and a light heel, ha! All's right, tap your keg!"

No sooner said than done. The keg was broached, and a good brown basin of double hollands were brimming at the lips of Warlock Fisher. The stranger did himself a similar service, and they grew friendly.—The Fisher could not avoid placing his hand before his eyes once or twice, as if he wished to avoid the keen gaze of the stranger, who still plied the fire with fuel and his host with hollands. Reserve was at length annihilated, and the Fisher jocularly said——

"Well, so we're old acquaintance ha!"

"Ay, said the young man, with another searching glance. I was in doubt at first but now I'm certain."

"And what's to be done?" said the Fisher.

"An hour after midnight you must put me on board———'s boat; she'll be abroad—They'll run a light to the mast head, for which you will steer. You're a good hand at the helm in a dark and rough sea."

"How, if I will not?" was the reply.

"Then your life or mine."

They sprang to their feet simultaneously; and an immediate encounter seemed inevitable.

"Pshaw!" said the Fisher, sinking on his seat, "what madness this is! I was a thought warm with liquor, and the recollections of past times were rising on my memory.—Think not of it. I heard these words once before," and he ground his teeth in rage.—"Yes, once; but in a shriller voice than yours! Sometimes too, the bastard rises to my view; and then I smite him so—bah! give us another basin full!" he struck short at vacancy, snatched the beverage from the stranger, and drank it off. "An hour after midnight, said ye?"

"Ay—you'll see no bastard then."

"Worse—may be—worse," muttered the Fisher, sinking into abstraction, and glaring wildly on the flickering embers before him.

"Why, how's this?" said the stranger.—"Are your senses playing bo-peep with the ghost of a pigeon livered coast captain, eh? Come take another pull at the keg, to clear your head lights, and tell us a bit of you ditty."

The Fisher took another draught and proceeded:

"About five-and-twenty years ago, a stranger came to this hut—may the curse of God annihilate him!"—

"Amen to that," said the young man.

"He brought with him a boy and a girl, a purse of gold, and———the arch fiend's tongue, to tempt me! Well it was to take these children out to sea—upset the boat—and lose them!"

"And you did so," interrupted the stranger.

"I tried—but listen. One fine evening, I took them out; the sun sank rapidly; and I knew by the freshening of the breeze, there would be a storm. I was not mistaken. It came on even faster than I wished. The children were alarmed—the boy in particular, grew suspicious; he insisted that I had an object in going out so far at sunset. This irritated me—and I rose up to smite him, when the fair girl interposed her fragile form between us. She screamed for mercy, and clung to my arm with the desperation of despair, I could not shake her off. The boy had the spirit of a man; he seized a piece of spar, and struck me on the temples. 'Now, you villain!' said he, 'your life or mine!' At that moment the boat upset, and we were all adrift. The boy I never again saw—a tremendous sea broke between us—but the wretched girl clung to me like hate!—her dying scream is ringing in my ears like madness! I struck her forehead, and she sank—all but her hand, one little white hand would not sink!—I threw myself on my back, and struck at it with both my feet—and then I thought it sunk forever. I made the shore with difficulty, for I was stunned and senseless, and the ocean heaved as though it would wash away the mortal world; and the lightning blazed as if all hell had come to light the scene of warfare! I have never since been on the sea at midnight, but that hand has followed or preceeded me; I have never———" Here he sank down from his seat, and rolled himself in agony upon the floor.

"Poor wretch," muttered the stranger, "what hinders now, my long sought vengeance? Even with my foot—but thou shalt share my murdered sister's grave!"

"A shot is fired—look out for the light!" said the young man.

The Fisher went to the door; but suddenly started back, clasping his hands before his face.

"Fire and brimstone! there it is again!" he cried.

"What?" said his companion, looking coolly around him.

"That infernal hand! Lightnings blast it! but that's impossible," he added, in a fearful undertone, which sounded as if some of the eternal rocks around him were adding a response to his imprecations—that's impossible! It is a part of them—it has been so for years—darkness could not shroud it—distance could not seperate it from my burning eye-balls! awake, it was there—asleep, it flickered and blazed before me! it has been my rock ahead through life, and it will herald me to hell!" So saying he pressed his sinewy hands upon his face, and buried his head between his knees, till the rock beneath him seemed to shake with his uncontrolable agony.

"Again it beckons me!" starting up; ten thousand fires are blazing in my heart—in my brain! where, where can I be worse!—Fiend I defy thee!"

"I see nothing," said his companion with unalterable composure.

"You see nothing!" thundered the Fisher, with mingled sarcasm and fury; "look there!" He snatched his hand, and pointing steadily into the gloom, again murmured,—"Look there! look there!"

At that moment the lightning blazed around with an appaling brilliancy, and the stranger saw a small white hand, pointing tremulously upwards.

"I saw it then," said he, "but it was not hers! Infatuated villain!" he continued, with irrepressible energy, "it is not my sister's hand—no, it is the incarnate fiend's who tempted you to perdition—begone together!"

He aimed a dreadful blow at the astonished Fisher, who instinctively avoided the stroke. Mutually wound up to the highest pitch of anger, they grappled each other's throat, set their feet, and straitened for the throw, which was inevitably to bury both in the wild waves beneath. A faint shriek was heard, and a gibbering, as of many voices, came fluttering around them.

"Chatter on," said the Fisher, "he joins you now!"

"Together—it will be together!" said the stranger, as, with a last desperate effort, he bent his adversary backward from the beating cliff. The voice of the Fisher sounded hoarsely in execration, as they dashed into the sea together; but what he said was drowned in the hoarser murmur of the uplashing surge. The body of the stranger was found, on the next morning, flung far upon the rocky shore—but that of the murderer was gone forever!

The superstitious peasantry of the neighborhood, still consider the spot haunted; and at midnight, when the waves dash fitfully against the perilous crags, and the bleak winds sweep with long and angry moans around them, they still hear the gibbering of the fiend, and the mortal execrations of the Warlock Fisher!—but after that fearful night, no man ever saw the PHANTOM HAND.

NEW ARRANGEMENTS.

HUNN & CROSBY,

No. 184 East Water St., Milwaukee,
Two doors north of Uncle Ben's Hat Store.

TAKE THIS OCCASION TO ANNOUNCE to their friends, and the public at large, that they have removed from their old quarters to their present location, for the purpose of obtaining more ample accommodations to their business, and to keep pace with the requirements of their trade. We have just made heavy additions to our stock, which makes ours the best assorted Family Grocery in town, and we intend to be in future, as we always have been in the past, the first in the market with every novelty of the season. We are receiving goods every week from the East, thereby always keeping our stock fresh and full. Everything pertaining to the trade can be found at our establishment, and we are prepared to sell at wholesale as well as retail, on as favorable terms as any concern in town. Teas, Sugars, Coffees, Dried Fruits, Hermetically Sealed Fruits, and every other article usually found in first-class family groceries, are sold by us, and always warranted as represented. We will sell you a better Tea for fifty cents, than you can buy anywhere else in town for seventy-five, and as good a one for forty, as our windy cotemporaries, who make such a blow on TEAS, will or can sell for fifty. We mean what we say, and stand ready to verify it every hour in the day, and every day in the week. We make it a point never to be undersold, and want it distinctly understood that we do our business upon that principle.

Country merchants can always sort up their stock with us, to a good advantage. We will sell you goods by the package as low as any of the wholesale dealers down town.

Butter and Eggs are received by us daily, from our agents in the country.

☞ TERMS CASH.

We cordially invite our friends and customers, and the public generally, to call and see us in our new institution, and make an examination of our goods and prices. Particular attention paid to orders.

St. Nicholas Hotel,

BROADWAY.
NEW YORK.

WHEN COMPLETED, SIX YEARS ago, the St. Nicholas was universally pronounced the most magnificent, convenient and thoroughly organized establishment of the kind on this continent. What it was then, it remains today—without a rival in sumptuousness, and in the general elements of comfort and enjoyment. The Hotel has accommodations for 1,000 guests, including 100 complete suites of apartments for families. Six hundred persons can be comfortably seated at the tables of its three public dining rooms, and nothing that modern art has devised for the convenience and social gratification of the traveling public has been omitted in its plan, or is neglected in its practical details. The early reputation of the house at home and abroad derived from its magnitude, its superb appointments, and its homelike comforts and luxuries, has been enhanced every year by the unwearied exertions of the proprietors.

SOYER'S SULTANA'S SAUCE.

For Hot and Cold Dishes of all Kinds.

THIS MOST DELICIOUS and appetising Sauce, invented by the renowned "SOYER," for the London Reform Club, is, since his decease, manufactured by the well known house of CROSSE & BLACKWELL, London, from the original recipe. It is the favorite sauce in England and on the Continent, with a high and growing reputation among American Epicures, and is much approved of as a stimulant to the appetite and aid in digestion.

Opinions of the London Press.

"We recommend our correspondent to try MONS. SOYER'S new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe; its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of SLOW AND WEAK DIGESTION."—The Lancet.

"Savory, Piquant and Spicy, worthy the genius of Soyer."—Observer.

"A most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh and Fowl, and should have a place on every table."—Atlas.

Richardson's Irish Linens. Damaks,

DIAPERS, &C.—CONSUMERS OF RICHARDSON'S LINENS, and those desirous of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm, J. N. RICHARDSON, SONS & OWDEN, as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the Goods.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless character.

THE GREATEST

MEDICAL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR

FROM

THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.
One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.
Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.
Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.
Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.
One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.
Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.
Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.
One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.
Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.
Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.
A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother, is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers, and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

NURSING SORE MOUTH

In the more advanced stages of

CANKER

it extends to the stomach, causing

DYSPEPSIA

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

RAW AND INFLAMED,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds; and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION OF THE

HYPOPHOSPHITES

OF LIME AND OF SODA,

(Made from the Formula of Dr. J. F. Churchill,)

FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION!

THE SUCCESS OF THIS NEW REMEDY, (discovered by Dr. Churchill, of Paris,) is obtaining the most UNBOUNDED POPULARITY throughout Europe and the United States. It is a purely SCIENTIFIC PREPARATION, and acts with INVARIABLE EFFICACY in all stages of Pulmonary and Nervous Diseases.

This Remedy has not only a curative effect, but will, if used wherever there exists a suspicion of the disease, PREVENT ITS DEVELOPMENT, and thus act as a preservative with regard to Consumption, just as vaccination does with regard to small pox.

What the Medical Profession Say.

"In no instance have I found the Remedy to fail."—Dr. Churchill.

"I have used your preparation of the Hypophosphites with the most happy effect."—C. Fisher, M. D., Lynville, Ill.

"I have been astonished in witnessing the good effects of the Hypophosphites. The statements in your pamphlet are not at all exaggerated. My patient was just entering the last stage of tubercular consumption."—S. Moses, M. D., Hoosic Falls, N. Y.

"They exert an important remedial influence over the tubercular disease by improving the nervous strength and invigorating the nutritive functions."—Dr. W. E. Bust, Morristown, N. J.

"I have derived more satisfaction from the use of your Hypophosphites than from all other forms of medication combined."—Dr. Geo. W. Maris, Columbus, O.

"If, on the earliest appearance of the symptoms, the patient takes daily about ten grains of the Hypophosphites, he will speedily find himself in the enjoyment of such health as he, perhaps, had never known in his life before."

"Winchester's Hypophosphites are unexceptional in their preparation."—Am. Druggists' Circular.

"Mr. Winchester is worthy of all confidence and devotes himself enthusiastically to these preparations in all their variety of combination."

Prepared strictly by Dr. Churchill's method."—D. Meredith Reese, M. D., New York.

"LOWELL, O., July 5, 1859.—I have had several cases given up by attending physicians who are now exempt from all the symptoms of pulmonary disease.—I have used the Remedy in my own case, with decided success. It was regarded as hopeless by physicians and friends, and even by myself, under the old treatment. I am now able to ride, in attending the sick, as many miles, perhaps, in a day, as any other physician in the country."—W. F. Clark, M. D.

"The Hypophosphites are most appropriate Remedies in large class of affections resulting from loss of nervous force."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption

IS NOW READY.

The Hypophosphites may be used with incurable success in Chronic Bronchitis, Asthma, Dyspepsia and in all "Nervous" Disorders.

Make no Delay!

Consumptives, in any stage of the disease, should resort immediately to the use of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. "Winchester's Genuine Preparation" (in simple syrup), in extra large bottles, is "chemically pure"; is the combination proposed by Dr. Churchill "for general use"; and is prepared according to his original Formula.

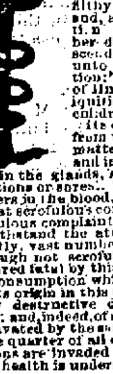
Scrofula, or King's Evil,



IS A CONSTITUTIONAL disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this blood becomes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease upon any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there any one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which engenders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

AYER'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla

The most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Eruptive and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Blains and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Syphilitic and Mercurial Diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Debility, and, indeed, all complaints arising from Vitiated or Impure Blood. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

EXPORTS BY LAKE.

Flour, bbls	900	Brick	25,000

The New York market to-day, both for wheat and flour, was quiet. Milwaukee Club sold at $1,30@1,32, and Extra Western flour at $5,40@5,60 for common to good brands. The report did not have any perceptible influence on our market, which was dull at previous quotations. The receipts were a little better than yesterday, but the sales were unimportant, not exceeding 8,000 bushels in the aggregate at $1,10 for No. 1 in store and delivered: $1,07½ for No. 2 in store and $1,12@1,13 for milling samples. Flour was entirely neglected. Oats in fair demand at 28c delivered.—Corn was offered freely for 45c, at which price there were sales of better than 1000 bus. Wool was a little firmer, if we may judge by the sales reported, mixed lots bringing 40@42c. We heard of no engagements of vessels. Vessel owners ask 5½ and 3½c for wheat to Buffalo and Oswego.

WHEAT TRADE OF MILWAUKEE AND CHICAGO.—Below is a comparative statement of the movements of wheat at Milwaukee and Chicago from January 1st to June 30th, the first half of the year 1860:

	Receipts.	Exports by lake
Milwaukee	1,879,901	1,713,528
Chicago	1,763,008*	1,156,536*
Difference	116,893	556,492

Thus it will be seen that the receipts of wheat at Milwaukee for the first half of the present year exceed the receipts at Chicago for the same period, by 116,893 bushels, and the exports from Milwaukee by lake for the half year are more than half a million bushels larger than the exports from Chicago. Last year Chicago exported 2,633 326 bushels wheat more than Milwaukee. This is the first time in the history of the two cities that Milwaukee has taken the lead in the export of wheat, and there is good reason to believe that Chicago will never again see the day when she can boast of being "the greatest inland wheat market in the world."

In 1857 the wheat trade of Chicago reached its climax, and since that date has been decreasing in about the same ratio that the wheat trade of Milwaukee has been increasing. The following table showing the exports of wheat from the two cities for the three years preceding the present one will illustrate this point:

Shipments of wheat.	1857	1858	1859
From Chicago	9,432,052	8,727,838	7,267,558
From Milwaukee	2,581,811	3,994,213	4,634,227
Difference	6,953,741	4,733,625	2,633,326

Here, it will be seen, is a diminuation in the differenc against Milwaukee of better than two millions bushels annually, since 1857 and for the first half of the present year, Milwaukee, we have shown, is half a million bushels ahead of her rival. The inference to be drawn from these facts needs no elaboration.

*These figures are from WELLS' Com. Express, the official organ of the Chicago Board of Trade.

PRODUCE MOVEMENTS AT NEW YORK—LARGE INCREASE IN FOREIGN EXPORTS.—The exports of flour and grain from New York, which for the first four months of the present year was quite limited, more than doubled during the fifth month, and have since been correspondingly large. The exports of wheat to the 1st of April had been only 260,000 bus; April increased them to 760,000 bus. No oats had to that date been shipped to Europe for several years; the shipments in April were nearly one hundred thousand bushels. The exports of Indian corn for four months had been only 225,000 bushels; by the first of June they had reached 923,000 bushels. We get these facts from the New York Journal of Commerce; also the following tables showing the exports of certain leading articles of Domestic Produce from New York to Foreign Ports for the first five months of the year:

It will be seen from the above that the exports of breadstuffs for the month of May have brought the total since January 1st almost up to the corresponding period of 1858. That period, it will be remembered, was one of uncommon activity in this department, especially in the exports of wheat. The shipments of that cereal for the month of June, 1858, were nearly one and a half millions of bushels, the week ending June 15th having cleared 441,855 bushels for foreign ports. In regard to other produce the statement will also be found interesting. The shipments have been large, and the items of butter, cheese and lard are far in advance of the same period of former years.

The Journal also adds an interesting comparative statement of the receipts of leading articles of produce at New York for the same period:

Whiskey, bbls	57172	53550	82208

This presents many items of interest, but calls for very little explanation. The statement includes as far as can be ascertained, the totals arriving coastwise, as well as that received from the interior. The present stock of flour at this port is about 880,000 bbls. The local production has run a little short of six thousand bbls per week. If we take the stock as estimated by us January 1st (1,488,665 bbls,) add the receipts, 885,404 bbls, and the local production, 182,000 bbls, we shall have a supply of 2,456,069 bbls. Then deduct the foreign exports, 805,463 bbls, and the consumption 55,000 bbls per week for twenty-two weeks, and we have left 880,606 bbls, which is probably not far from the true total now on hand.

CHICAGO MARKET, JULY 2D.—Receipts of the articles named, at Chicago, yesterday, were as follows:

Flour, bbls	511
Wheat, bus	9,464
Corn, bus	112,979
Oats, bus	8,165

In reference to the market the Press & Tribune says:

The receipts of corn to-day were 122,979 bus and the shipments 98,000 bus. The market opened with sales of No. 1 at 47½@47¾c in store; but it speedily became heavy, and prices declined ½@1c below Saturday's ruling quotations, and although there was a temporary reaction on 'Change, still the market closed dull and heavy, at 47c for No. 1 store. About 125,000 bus changed hands at 47½c for good River Mixed in store; 46½c for No. 2 Canal; 46¾@47½c for No. 1 in store; 45½@46c for No. 2; and 43c for Rejected.—Wheat opened dull under the influence of the Anglo Saxon's news, and prices receded ½c; but owing to a report that the amount of wheat in store was much lower than the estimates, the market rallied and closed tolerably firm. About 22,000 bus were sold at $1,06½@1,07c for No. 1 Spring in store; $1,05@1,05½ for No. 1; and 9 @91c for Rejected. Flour was quiet and without material change, with limited sales at $4,80@5 for good to choice Spring extras. Oats dull and declined ½@1c—26@26½c being the range of prices for No. 1 in store. Rye and Barley nominal.

Freights were very firm, but there is no material advance. Five vessels were engaged at 5c for corn to Buffalo; 7@7½c for corn to Oswego, and 9c to Ogdensburgh.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS.—An intelligent correspondent of the Philadelphia American, writing from this city, presents a truthful picture of the condition and prospects of the important section of the Northwest tributary to Milwaukee:

MILWAUKEE, June, 1860.

The crops throughout the West are now looking remarkably well; and, judging from present appearances, the yield this year will be greater than ever before.

Minnesota, it is estimated, will send over 8,500,000 bushels of grain to market, and the crops of this State will be proportionately greater; and the other western States will, as far as I am informed, have immense crops.

At present, business of all kinds in this State is rather quiet. We have had a very fair average business during the past spring, and money matters appear to grow easier almost daily; and we are, with our anticipated abundant harvest, looking for a very heavy business the coming season.

There is but little doing of a speculative character in real estate just now, as we have not yet recovered from the revulsion of 1857. Parties owning property cannot realize what they consider fair prices, and prefer holding until matters again reach a point at which they can obtain something near the rates which ruled here a few years since. There are, of course, sales made almost daily, by parties unable to hold property, and forced to throw it upon the market at whatever it will bring; but other than these, very few.

One or two more harvests such as we expect the coming fall will go far toward placing Wisconsin again in the front rank of Western States in point of credit resources, and the severe ordeal through which she, in common with the whole country, has passed, will have exerted a healthy and lasting influence upon her.

I am satisfied that a better time than the present for investing capital in the west never presented itself; for the present depressed market for real estate, with the prospects and advantages before us, cannot long continue, and the advance when it does commence will be substantial and rapid.

When it is considered that nearly every dollars worth of the vast surplus produce of Minnesota, Northern Iowa, and Wisconsin, will come to this market, some idea may be formed of the activity which will prevail here next Fall in all departments of business.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE DETROIT WOOL MARKET.—Receipts have been as follows:

	Past week.	Previous week.
By Lake	2000
By Mich. Central R. R.	309791 lbs.	80073 lbs.
By Det. & Mil. R'y	159568	21692
By Det. & Toledo R'y	6138	810
Total	477872	102574
Corresp. week, 1859	441383	189018

Thus the receipts have exceeded those for the corresponding week last year, yet still, the total from January 1st remains in deficit. Shipments 549 bales, or about 100,000 lbs. A large amount arrives by teams, of which we have no account. Very little wool is being marketed here, and in fact the bulk of the clip is by this time disposed of throughout the State. There has been no excitement in the market the past week, and prices have remained steady at the quotations given in our last review:

Full blood merino	45@47c
Three-fourths blood	41@43c
Half blood	36@39c
One-fourth blood	31@34c
Native	27@29c

We shall hope ere the close of another week, to have received some returns of the amount purchased at each of the great wool markets of the interior. The impression is, that the clip will show a decided increase, compared with last year's.—Advertiser of Monday.

City Auction Room and Land Office

I AM NOW REMOVED TO THE STORE No. 163 East Water street. It is directly opposite to Mitchell's Bank. I think I have now one of the best stands for auction business in our city. All who have any business in my line will please give me a call. CALEB WALL.

The firm of OGDEN & WALL is dissolved. I will at present occupy the same office for real estate purposes, and attend to all business, such as obtaining loans, selling mortgages, and renting houses. Insurances can be obtained in first class Eastern Companies at current rates. In the course of two weeks I intend to make my annual report of the improvements which are now going on in the various Wards of our city. The impression with some is that no improvements are going on, which is a mistake. Milwaukee city is yet alive and going ahead, and will continue to do so. Never was there such an opportunity for capitalists to invest money, as now offers. One thing I would request: all who have made contracts for buildings will please inform me, so that I can report the same.
